Five days. Five milestones.

Puppies aged 6 to 12 months are in a critical developmental window — what they learn now shapes their behaviour for life. The five days are non-consecutive and scheduled flexibly around your puppy's needs. Each day builds on the last.

Day 1 · Initial Orientation and Safe Exploration

Build comfort in a new environment · establish trust with handlers · begin positive social experiences.

Day 2 · Gradual Group Integration

Develop social confidence · learn appropriate play styles · practise basic manners.

Day 3 · Structured Socialisation

Enhance social understanding · develop self-control · build social confidence.

Day 4 · Calm and Quiet Time

Develop self-regulation · learn to settle · build emotional control.

Day 5 · Confidence Building and Graduation

Demonstrate learned skills · show social confidence · celebrate achievements.

Why it matters

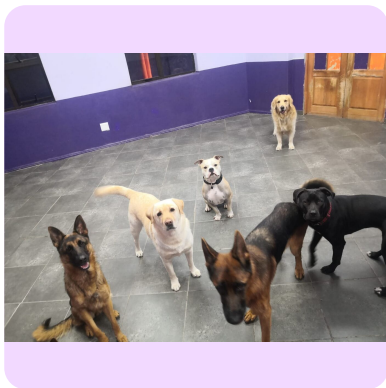

- ✓ Social development — safe, structured socialisation with age-appropriate playmates and expert handler guidance
- ✓ Confidence building — carefully designed activities in a controlled, positive environment
- ✓ Life skills — social manners, basic commands and calm behaviour

For pet parents

- ✓ Daily progress reports and photos every step of the way
- ✓ Trained, experienced handlers who care as much as you do
- ✓ Puppies who complete the Social Training settle into regular daycare far more smoothly
- ✓ Professional support from assessment to graduation — and beyond
